From Their Royal Majesties

Pray head to this last missive of Kynan and Eleanor.

The nights grow long, and the fall air fills Our hearts with contemplation. The day quickly approaches when We will pass on the Stag Throne to Our heirs Mealgwen and Cainnleach. We know that they will reign with wisdom and dignity when We take leave to voyage on to other adventures.

Thank you to all who have helped during Our tour of Our lands. Due to your hard work We are able to take with Us wonderful memories of moments filled with generosity, skill, and most importantly fun! We were constantly astounded by the passion shared and the special place such actions create.

This Kingdom is a remarkable place, and it makes Our hearts soar to hear the cheers of 'Outlands'. Take pride in the green and gold, for through continued sharing of love and joy does the heart in the mighty stag beat.

We look forward to the day that we shall again walk with everyone, visit around camp-fires, and raise our glasses to the glory of it all. But until that time, take care, travel safe, and as always - have fun!

The moment has arrived for Us to journey onward. You shall always be in our hearts, Good-bye and thank you,

Kynan, King — Eleanor, Queen

Constitution for the Order of the Knight Pensioners of the Venerable Guard

I. There shall exist in the Kingdom of the Outlands an award, known as the Order of the Knight Pensioners of the Venerable Guard, which may be given by the Crown to those of their subjects who have served the martial interests of the Society for a period of not less than thirty (30) years.

II. The holders of this award shall be styled depending upon their precedence, for example, if they are knights, they will be known as Knight Pensioners of the Venerable Guard. If they are armigerous, they will be known as Lord Pensioners of the Venerable Guard. They shall be entitled to place the initials P.V.G. after their names.

III. The insignia of the order shall consist of a medallion bearing, pending registration by the College of Arms, the badge for the Order, to wit: Vert, a sheaf of three swords inverted proper surmounted by a rose, all within an orle of oak leaves Or.

IV. This award carries neither arms nor precedence.

V. Amendments to this constitution shall be made by the Crown of the Outlands.

By our hands this 4th day of August, A.S. XXXVI, being 2001 Gregorian.

Kynan, King — Eleanor, Queen

Juan Balthazar Tigrerro, White Stag Principal Herald

From Their Royal Highness

Unto the loyal subjects of this Kingdom. Doth does Prince Maelgwn, the Dread lord of Argonia and Princess Cainnleach send greetings this day.

We would wish to give our congratulations to all that competed in the recent Crown Tournament. The fighting was strong and fearless, and the grace and beauty of the consorts were unmatched.

At this time I would wish to announce my champion as being Sir Hokan.

As the weekend drew on, Their Royal Majesties called upon the warriors of this kingdom to stake claims to be the successor to THL Otake, as this Kingdom's Warlord. As we sat and watched the tournament with Their Majesties, we witnessed the amount of chivalry and honor given that day by all the combatants. Congratulations is to be given to Count Caesan, which stepped forward to become our new Warlord.

As the next few months pass, Her Highness and I plan on visiting several of the groups and look forward to meeting with everyone as we set forth on our journey to become your next King and Queen of the Outlands.

On our Coronation day, we will call forth all of the peers of this Kingdom and the Barons and Baronesses to attend us on the day after in a short meeting of the peers.

Her Highness and I would also call forth to all that we would wish to hear your words pertaining to award recommendations. There are many deserving gentles in the Kingdom and we would wish to recognize all that need be so. Please send us your words promptly as we wish to send out our scroll assignments one month prior to when they would be given. We are asking that you mail the award recommendations to Her Highness's address. We will review them together upon receipt.

Please don't forget that this month is our toy drive around the Kingdom for children less fortunate. We encourage each of you to please start planning now to be involved in this worthy effort.

In Service to the Mighty Populace of the Outlands,

Maelgwn
Dread Lord of Argonia

Cainnleach
Princess

Consulting varied and arcane books, Torcailmada, the Once and Future Abbot of the Moth Eaten Order of Saint Golias, has determined that it is again time for the highly moveable and always enjoyable Feast Day of Saint Golias, being held this year on November 3rd. The Feast Day of Saint Golias is a time to gather together, to have fun, to feast, and to remember with warmth and fondness of those who have passed on before us. To raise a glass in their memory, so that they shall never be forgotten; that we remember them in our hearts.

There will be the Defender of Golias heavy weapons tourney and the Blade of Golias light weapons tourney; lists open at 10:00 am and close at 11:30 am, with the Defender of Golias tourney starting at noon. Games for all follow the tourneys. Rumor has it that the time honored game of Goliards everywhere, ROCK!, shall be re-introduced.

While the feast is still being nailed down as of this writing (pesky critters just won't stay still), a preliminary menu follows (caveat: menu is liable to change at the whim of the cooks): Vegetable pottage Beef Barley soup Lentils and rice Bird in Sawce Beef Chewets Grilled sausages Honeyed chickpeas Bread and butter Assorted dessert(s) Note: if you have ANY type of food allergy, no matter how strange, PLEASE let us know! We will be delighted to work around them.

There is absolutely no need for anyone to go away from a Goliard feast hungry - you are our guests. Early reservations are highly encouraged. Reservations will be taken up to October 31st. To place your reservations, please contact the Autocrat. Please provide the following information: SCA Name and mundane name, Number attending for site & feast / site only and a contact e-mail or phone number .

A bardic competition will be held during the feast, as in past years, with a gift of silver to the best entertainer. Sign-up sheets will be available at the troll. Throughout the day there will be an informal competition for best hunters theme (garb/table setting/banner) to be arbitrarily judged by the kitchen staff.

There will be a soup and bread donation lunch from about 1 p.m. till about 2 p.m. The main feast will start about 6 p.m. If the Crown attends, and so wishes, court will be held. The feast will consist of the bounty of the land, and whatever the Hunters and Gatherers of our fair land provide. This is a meat intensive feast. If you are vegetarian, or have food allergies, or aversions, please contact the cook, who will prepare dishes suited to your tastes.

Site and feast fees for the day are $10.00, with children ages 6 - 12 half price, and children under 6 free (Family Cap of $30.00). For availability of reservations after Nov. 15, contact the cook. Mail your reservations to the Event Steward, with checks made to SCA-Windkeep. Please include legal name, society name, and address; phone number membership number, and local group on your check. Include a list with all of the above information if you are paying for others.

If you would like to help clean up or serve, please contact the cook. Merchanting is allowed in the hall before the feast, but must be coordinated in advance.

Elks Lodge #1055, 306 Coffman, Longmont CO

Midwinter is approaching: a time of celebration and competition (competitive celebrating may occur, be prepared). Thus, it is time to start preparing for a night to remember - those planning on blackmail should keep in mind that such is frowned upon in most jurisdictions. This year, in addition to our infamous Caer Galen Musical Chairs (bring your waivers!), there will be dueling sonnets at twenty paces, a mystery A&S competition (the judges have to figure out what they're looking at), and lots of dancing. The colour is purple - garb, prose, mountains, and passion.

The site is the Longmont Elks' Lodge, which is a hall large enough to contain fencing, dancing, and feasting simultaneously. The fencers are encouraged not to use feast items as impromptu off-hand weapons - those doing so are subject to conscription as servers. The floor is wood parquet, so please wear shoes with non-marking soles.

There is a cash bar - no alcohol may be brought on site, nor taken off site, due to requirements of the site's liquor license. The bar will be stocking a variety of commercially-available tipples. If you have specific requests, please send them to the autocrat.

As is traditional, a new Captain of the Caer Galen Guard shall be determined in a series of competitions, including fencing. The competitions are being organized by the current Captain, Don Carrick.

This year we are inaugurating the Caer Galen Senate. Elections for this august body will be held, and as has been demonstrated by certain previous candidates for Doge, money talks.

Please note: We will be polling the populace to determine if they wish a status change to Province or Barony. All citizens of Caer Galen are encouraged to attend and make their preferences regarding the Shire's future known. The traditional vote for the new Harp of Caer Galen shall be held, of course.

Reservations should be sent to the autocrat. Feast reservations are limited, and must be received by Friday, December 7. Feast fees increase by $3 on December 1.

The Saxons fought to save their land from Normans and from Vikings, And so they fought two battles grand at Stamford Bridge and Hastings. And with those battles, England came out from the age of mystery. Come join us at the 12th Night feast to share this time in history.

Good gentles, the birth of the new England occurred on the battlefields at Stamford Bridge and Hastings in 1066. From the depths of the dark ages, England was transformed into the country we have come to know during the medieval and enlightened ages of the renaissance.

Come join us to recognize this important time in history as we celebrate the Caerthen 12th Night through the invasions of England.

There will be games and contests pitting the Saxons against Vikings and Normans. Planned activities include boffer tournaments for adults and children, dart tournaments, and an embroidery contest using patterns from the Bayeaux tapestry. Children will be able to "paint" panels from the tapestry as well as enjoy a special event, the Harald Hardrada Pinata (not period, but it should be a lot of fun!!). Other games such as an invasions trivia contest and a bardic competition on an invasion theme will also be held, with the winning bard performing at the evening feast. The best costumes from each of the three factions in the invasion wars will be awarded prizes, with an overall prize for the best costume for men and women. All contest participants will register at troll so that they are included in their events at the appropriate time.

The invasions feast will include items similar to those that appear on two separate panels of the Bayeaux tapestry. Prepared by Lady Aethelind of Erbesweald, the feast will combine the tastes of Vikings, Normans, and Saxons as they occurred at the height of the invasion period. First course of the feast is the Fighter's table, and includes Pork roast, stewed apples, pease porridge with greens, and oat bread. Second course is Bishop Odo's fare, and includes salmon cawdle, blanched greens and plum bread pudding. The final course is "The Conqueror's Bounty" and includes beef roast, honey glazed root vegetables, white bread and barley with pears.

A donation lunch provided by the outstanding cooks of Caerthe and coordinated by THL Arwen Southenwood is planned, with proceeds to be shared between the Fortress and OH publication funds.

Merchants are welcome! However, reservations for space are required in advance as merchant space is limited extremely limited. No merchant may reserve more than one table. Site fees are required for merchants. Contact Lady Killian McKenzie (Dawn Whitacre) at 303 773-9596 for space and requirements.

Officer's Reports

from the Seneschal

Good Day All,

Over the course of this summer I have had the opportunity to see a number of events in the planning stage, during the weekend of the event. I have also had the opportunity to be the available ear when both autocrats and officers express their frustration at the parts of events that has not gone so well. From these observations I have noted some repeating themes that need addressing. I bring them up in this venue because some of it has to do with the people attending the events not just those planning and running events.

I have learned that a goodly number of autocrats are not involving their Seneschal when they plan the event. They make the assumption that the event is theirs to do with as they wish. This includes finding sites and halls, signing for them, and making other financial commitments for their group. The Seneschal of any group is the legal representative to the modern world and as such is the only authority able to sign contracts on behalf of the SCA Inc. Contracts that are not signed by the Seneschal may become the financial responsibility of the signer. Financial committees are there to ensure that SCA funds are not used inappropriately (i.e., to buy alcohol), and to help plan budgets for events that are consistent with the groups financial abilities. Budget busting events can deeply hurt a group.

Event articles are an important part of any event. They are in the O.H. in part to inform the populace where the event is to be held, how much it will cost, provide for site restrictions, and alert people to feast details and possible food allergies. SCA publication policy has specific requirements for what should be in an event article. The Seneschal in each is responsible for ensuring that these requirements are met. There have been instances where the first a Seneschal learns of the details of their group's events is when they read it in the O.H. Moreover, some Seneschals have found that their event article bares little resemblance to the event that was planned in the group meeting. Event articles must be submitted to your group Seneschal prior to submission to the O.H. Lady Christina, our Kingdom Chronicler, will be returning event articles that have not been seen by the Seneschal, and articles not returned in time to meet the ! ! deadline will not be printed.

Lastly, I am distressed to learn that some people are attending events and not paying their site and feast fees. In some cases it seems that certain individuals are making it a game to see if they can get away with it. I find this shameful. People who would skip out on their bill not only hurt their own reputation, but hurt the group they are doing it to. In some of the smaller groups this could be the difference between a successful event and a financial loss. I am asking all group Seneschals to inform me where they see things like this happening, and the Crown and I will be seeking those individuals out for a talk. I hope this word to the wise is sufficient.

Thank you for your attention. I hope to discuss lighter subjects next month.

from the Hospitaller

Greetings to the Mighty Populace of the Outlands!

I need your help! As of this writing, I have been unable to contact the Seneschal or the Hospitaller of the following Groups: Bofharrach (Greely, CO) Caer Mithin Halle (Carlsbad, NM), Plattefordham (Casper, WY)

If you are (or know of) the Seneschal or Hospitaller of these groups, please contact me at: gwydion@zianet.com (preferred) or phone (505) 649-3551.

I plan on establishing regional deputies. These office holders would be required to travel throughout their area of responsibility, assist local Hospitallers with recruitment, and report to me on a regular basis on the health and well being of their region. If this sounds like something you would like to do - please send me a letter of intent at my email address.

At present, I have selected one deputy (Three Huzzahs for her offer of service!): Western Area: THL Leona Roy (Contact info is on back cover) If any good gentles would like to assist this office or have any ideas you would like to share, please contact me. I would love to hear your plans and ideas!

I will be attending Coronation so feel free to talk to me there as well.

In the coming months I have some exiting projects planned - competitions, membership drives, an Outlandish video, and...well let's save discussion of these for a later article!

Yours In Service,
Lord Gwydion

from the Arts & Sciences

Greetings. THL Jorunn has been called away to Greenland. Please join me in wishing her well and thanking her for her efforts on behalf of the Arts and Sciences in the Outlands. Her enthusiasm shall be missed. There has been a report that I have taken over this office. That is an error. I am simply filling in until the replacement is named.

The Kingdom A&S Competition was held in Venerable Bede on October 13th. To the many people who assisted me in completing this event – you have my deepest thanks. Congratulations go to the winners in each of the categories. They shall be announced next month due to publication deadlines.

Their Most Royal Majesties and His Excellency Syr Rhys are accepting letters from those interested in filling this office. I would highly encourage anyone interested in the A&S office to notify them as quickly as possible. There are currently two A&S events each year, plus the Outland's Estrella War A&S concerns which this office, along with the regular officer duties, is responsible. Arts and Sciences is an ever-changing field with many opportunities arising to learn, share, educate and create. It enables the officer the unique opportunity to experience the vast array of interests of our artisans from many areas. The office is one that allows the officer the chance to promote, enhance and unite the diversities of the Arts and Sciences for the glory of the Outlands.

My thanks again go to all those who assisted, entered and attended the Kingdom A&S – you all made it possible.

Gabrielle Cartier

Position Available: Society Minister of Arts & Sciences

The Minister of Arts and Sciences is the officer responsible for fostering the study of period culture and technology, and of methods for producing historically accurate artifacts and performances. Duties include coordinating the efforts of kingdom officers in the field (regardless of whether or not the functions related to "Arts" and "Sciences" are combined in one job of kept separate); promoting the dissemination of accurate information about the fields under study; assisting the Chronicler of the Society and the editors of the corporate publications in confirming the validity of research presented to the membership; and performing other duties assigned by the Board as directed.
This is an unpaid position. Applicants should be able to travel to other Kingdoms as necessary, and have easy access to phone, mail, and e-mail (e-mail is not required, but is highly desirable). An applicant must be a paid member of the Society, and be able to meet quarterly reporting deadlines in a timely manner.

Please send resumes to: Arts & Sciences Resumes, SCA, Box 360789, Milpitas CA 95036, or email them to directors@sca.org. Resumes must be received no later than December 31, 2001.

from the Earl Marshal

Greetings,

The summer tourney season is over and the time for war draws closer. I would remind everyone that it is time to begin gearing our practices toward the war effort and this means melee practice for fighters and fencers as well as training of the Marshallate staff for this year's Estrella War. Also, as fall settles upon us, I would ask that all fighters to take the time to warm up and stretch out before fighting. Check your weapons, as some thrusting tips can become quite hard when the temperature drops.

Since there are not a great number of martial activities to discuss this month, I thought I'd jump up on my soapbox and talk about a subject that I've been putting some thought into lately: Honor. Honor is one of the core beliefs upon which our Society is based, yet I feel that it is a word whose meaning is often not fully understood or even contemplated. Although it is a term that is commonly used in our everyday lives in the society, few of us take the time to realize the implications of honoring one's lady or one's opponent on the tournament field (the field of honor). Honoring these people goes beyond the mere act of saluting them at the beginning of the fight. To honor (v.) someone means to act towards them with honor (n.), which is defined as:

Honor: (n) Principled uprightness of character; personal integrity. (American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language, Fourth Edition) (n) A nice sense of what is right, just, and true, with course of life correspondent thereto; strict conformity to the duty imposed by conscience, position, or privilege. Principled uprightness of character; personal integrity. (Webster's Revised Unabridged Dictionary)

Although many would argue the details of this definition (what is just and what is right), the truth is it is fairly straightforward. It is these details which can make honor a personal as well as a social trait. Honor does need to be personal in order to be taken seriously, but it must be bound by a social context. We as a Society define the scope of what the acceptable displays of honor are, and when we do not in our actions actively upkeep that definition, we allow a lower standard of actions which brings honor to no one. I would encourage each of you to reflect on the subject of honor after reading this, and take the time to develop and strengthen your personal idea and ideal of honor that you bring to the Society.

Finally, the time has come for me to step down from the office of the Earl Marshal. My able deputy Earl Cathyn Fitzgerald will be replacing me in December, so please make a note of this. His email address is cathyn@swcp.com, and his complete contact information will be in the Outlandish Herald next month.

Fight well and honorably and be safe,
Hrothgar

From the Acting Kingdom Rapier Marshal

Unto all rapier fighters of the Kingdom of the Outlands does Don Carrick send greetings! As you've probably heard, Lady Devlin has stepped down as KRM, and their Majesties and the Earl Marshal have seen fit to name me as the Acting KRM until after Estrella War. Therefore, I ask that all authorizing and group rapier marshals please get in touch with me no later than November 25th to help me transition into the office. Remember: if I don't hear from you I will assume you do not exist!

Also, I would ask that anyone who has submitted a report to the KRM in the last 2 months please send me another copy, to make sure nothing gets lost as the paperwork is handed over. If anyone has any questions or concerns regarding the Rapier Marshallate, my contact information is as follows:

e-mail: rjackson@justice.com (preferred)
phone: 303-657-2995 (next best) address: 2901 W. 81st Ave Unit D
Westminster, CO 80031 (last resort)

Finally, elsewhere in this issue is Earl Cathyn's call for Letters of Intent for this position. I encourage any and all who are interested to come forward and make yourselves known to His Excellency and Their Majesties.

In Service,
Don Carrick

From the Archer General

Greetings Archers of the Outlands,

I would like to remind everyone in our fast paced, I need it yesterday modern world not everything we read in the Outlandish Herald is current when it arrives in our mailboxes.

Lady Christina our Kingdom chronicler often publishes the IKAC standings from the SCA keeper of the scores. These scores have to get from the archery marshal at the shoot, to the kingdom scorekeeper, an anywhere up to thirty-day delay. Lord Lorenzo who compiles scores from all Kingdoms then sends out his monthly update. So for example a score from as early as May or June is included in the August report. That report makes the September first deadline for publishing in the October newsletter. The keyword in all this is reporting, delay. There is always the IKAC website at www.detommaso.org/ikac but you still have the initial delays up to the point that the website is updated.

Imagine the additional delays there are without the use of e-mail.

Keep shooting those IKACs!

The Lion & the Fox

An old lion, who was no longer able to go out and catch animals to eat, thought of a plan. He shut himself up in a cave and pretended to be very, very ill. Whenever an animal would come in to ask how he was feeling, he would jump on it and eat it. One day a fox, who had figured out what was going on, stood outside the cave and asked the lion about his health. The lion replied, "I feel pretty good today. Why don't you come in for a chat?" And the fox answered, "I would, if I didn't see so many tracks of animals going in but non of the animals coming out again."

Moral: To a wise man, evidence is sometimes more important than words. AESOP

KING. What's he that wishes so? My cousin Westmoreland? No, my fair cousin; If we are mark'd to die, we are enow To do our country loss; and if to live, The fewer men, the greater share of honour. God's will! I pray thee, wish not one man more. By Jove, I am not covetous for gold, Nor care I who doth feed upon my cost; It yearns me not if men my garments wear; Such outward things dwell not in my desires. But if it be a sin to covet honour, I am the most offending soul alive. No, faith, my coz, wish not a man from England. God's peace! I would not lose so great an honour As one man more methinks would share from me For the best hope I have. O, do not wish one more! Rather proclaim it, Westmoreland, through my host, That he which hath no stomach to this fight, Let him depart; his passport shall be made, And crowns for convoy put into his purse; We would not die in that man's company That fears his fellowship to die with us. This day is call'd the feast of Crispian. He that outlives this day, and comes safe home, Will stand a tip-toe when this day is nam'd, And rouse him at the name of Crispian. He that shall live this day, and see old age, Will yearly on the vigil feast his neighbours, And say 'To-morrow is Saint Crispian.' Then will he strip his sleeve and show his scars, And say 'These wounds I had on Crispian's day.' Old men forget; yet all shall be forgot, But he'll remember, with advantages, What feats he did that day. Then shall our names, Familiar in his mouth as household words- Harry the King, Bedford and Exeter, Warwick and Talbot, Salisbury and Gloucester- Be in their flowing cups freshly rememb'red. This story shall the good man teach his son; And Crispin Crispian shall ne'er go by, From this day to the ending of the world, But we in it shall be remembered- We few, we happy few, we band of brothers; For he to-day that sheds his blood with me Shall be my brother; be he ne'er so vile, This day shall gentle his condition; And gentlemen in England now-a-bed Shall think themselves accurs'd they were not here, And hold their manhoods cheap whiles any speaks That fought with us upon Saint Crispin's day.

Shakespeare, Henry V: Act IV, sc. III

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (½) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. Autocrats, please take notice of the article size constraints, and try to stay within them. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the three (3) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Kingdom Events (Crown, Coronation, A&S Competition/Collegium, and others as designated by the Crown) receive one (1) page in the publications prior to the event, and two (2) pages the month of the event. Non-Kingdom Events receive one-half (½) page in the publications prior to the event, and one (1) page the month of the event. Additional space may be purchased for any publication month at the current advertising rates. Current advertising rates are listed in the front of the Outlandish Herald. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
